

Notes from February 28th

Events/Framework

- Cortez arrives on the Atlantic Coast
 - Coastal guy reports of mountains (ships) in water
 - They have interpreters
 - Delegation from Mexico meets Cortez
 - There were allies among tribes
 - Spaniards were amazed by the sacrifices
1. Cortez manipulated the Indians by taking advantages of their religious acts
 2. Montezuma wanted to runaway and hide after find out that the spells didn't work. (p.35 Dennis Frazee)
 3. Peace is the general plan when seeing aliens (strangers)
 4. Montezuma sent his people out to praise the gods (Spaniards) not to be captured by the gods (Spaniards)
 5. They do not make alliances with everybody they slaughter at Cholula
 6. Cortez told the citizens of Cholula lies (p. 40 Desmond Risper)
 7. They wanted to flood their enemies with water; however, they sacrificed themselves (p. 47 Dennis Frazee)
 8. They faced enemies without any weapons (p. 41 Desmond Risper)
 9. Montezuma gave message to his people to say stop fighting (p. 77-78 Desmond Risper)
 10. Cortez will instruct them on how to be baptized. They should be baptized immediately because he has learned the true ideals of a new faith (p. 59 Professor Helman)